The Village at Meridian Announces 2016 Rock the Village Lineup

Free summer concert series kicks off July 8, features several tribute bands

MERIDIAN, Idaho – June 21, 2016 – The Village at Meridian has announced its Rock the Village lineup for the free summer concert series, which starts on July 8. Acts include impressive tribute bands covering rock legends like the Eagles, Elton John, Fleetwood Mac and Creedence Clearwater Revival.

“Rock the Village brings live music weekly to the heart of the Boise Valley for a third straight year, including a great mix of old favorites and a few new bands,” said Hugh Crawford, general manager for The Village at Meridian. “The popularity of Rock the Village stems largely from the eclectic mix of music genres, as well as a balance of some of the best regional bands with great local entertainers. We’ve also made a few changes to make the experience even better for our guests.”

This year, concerts will start at 5:30pm and last until 8:30pm. Store hours will be extended until 10:00pm and the Village Cinema will feature later movie times. The music will continue beyond the concert at Big Al’s and Backstage Bistro, which will feature live bands after Rock the Village.
