Victoria's Secret Latest Upscale Retailer to Join the Village at Meridian
More than 60 stores and restaurants now open at Treasure Valley's preferred entertainment destination

MERIDIAN, Idaho—August 7, 2015— The leading specialty retailer of women's intimate apparel and fashion-inspired collections, Victoria's Secret, is the newest addition to the expanding line-up of fashion destinations at The Village at Meridian. The 7,700 square foot store will include a side-by-side PINK store and will be located between Lululemon and Charming Charlie, across from Kona Grill.

"The Village continues to add some of the most globally recognized brands to our expanding retail options to meet every need imaginable," said Hugh Crawford, General Manager of The Village at Meridian. "We are so grateful for the excitement and support of our community and are proud to bring Victoria's Secret closer to residents in the heart of the Treasure Valley."

Victoria's Secret is planning to open by the holidays and will be accompanied by H&M, Boise Co-op and AT&T also planning a fall opening at The Village. These stores will follow Walla Walla Clothing Co. and Matador both slated to open this month. This will be the second store location for Victoria's Secret in the market.
