Station Park in Farmington Launches Free Rock the Park Concert Series August 17

FARMINGTON, Utah, August 9, 2012 - Station Park, Northern Utah's new gathering place, added one more reason to visit the open-air shopping center -- a free summer concert series called Rock the Park. The community is invited to enjoy free musical entertainment every Friday from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m., August 17 - September 14. Station Park is located near the intersection of I-15, Highway 89 and Legacy Parkway in Farmington, Utah.

Station Park will kick off the series with a concert by the Party Crashers on August 17. "We're excited to feature this eclectic group of musicians for our first concert," says Debby LaMotte, Station Park general manager. "They have tremendous talent, boundless energy, and unmistakable chemistry that we know the whole family will enjoy. We invite the community to come and enjoy the concert in the chairs we will set up, or from the open-air restaurants and patio seating surrounding our new world-class show fountain."

LaMotte says Party Crashers cover today's latest tunes and Alex "Crazy Legs" Rowe, who rocked the American Idol tour with his booming bass and unique dancing style, rounds out this dynamic team.

Additional Rock the Park free concerts will feature:

August 24: Voodoo Orchestra

This 20-piece Voodoo band plays jump- jive- swing like you've never heard it before, infusing an infectious blend of rock, jazz, and blues. Comprised entirely of musicians ages 15 to 18, you'll want to see for yourself why Salt Lake City booked them several years running for their high-profile New Year's Celebration, "EVE." Jeff Coffin of Dave Matthews Band fame has said, "These guys don't just raise the bar; they soar over it!"

August 31: ECLIPSE A Cappella

Eclipse has built on Utah's tradition of producing award-winning a cappella groups and taken it to the next level. Their carefully arranged harmonies and "beatbox" style of vocal prowess has led Eclipse to receive numerous international awards. Their high-energy choreographed show is geared to entertain, while their unbelievably rich sound defies the audience to believe that there are NO instruments on stage. Eclipse has a repertoire of recognizable tunes from 1950 to 2012.

September 7: The Salamanders

Get ready for light jazz standards, rock, funk, country, Motown and top 40 hits with The Salamanders' repertoire. The Salamanders combine the finest professional studio musicians with hot award-winning vocalists that create exciting and unforgettable events. Artists include a combination of those heard and seen on America's Got Talent, American Idol Season 5, Broadway Musicals and more!

September 14: NO LIMITS with special guest artist GREG SIMPSON!

This high-energy band is known for its versatility, as they play the best dance music from the 60's to current Top 40 hits. Joined by local singer-songwriter, Greg Simpson, this dynamic band is more than a cover band; it's a show! Greg brings a gritty edge to all of your favorite classic rock tunes, while Rachel and her sisters keep the energy high with dance routines and vocals.
